Reader's Input

Dear Editors,

My belated response to the several articles of my friend Thomas Yip in the Newsletter since July '14.

I emigrated to Canada before the end of 1966. After a brief stay in British Columbia, I moved inland to Edmonton and attended University of Alberta, where I met some of the OBs mentioned in the Thomas' first article. Nice to see them still vibrant after these years, except one who passed away. I finally landed in Montreal, where I became more of a Francophone than an Anglophone. I shall never forget Dr. Walter Wou, who taught my basics in French for 6 long years at LSC. Good to know he's still in good shape. Br. Felix was at the helm at the time, and he was an awesome principal, who had our respect. The pictures in the article about him brought back all the fond memories, not just under the Dome, but also of my elder, George, of the Perth Street era. He was in the 1st Student Council of '59, sitting among all the would-be leaders in the picture. Of course also Bros. Wilfred and Cassian who taught my father and uncle in the 30's. All in the family!

Now that I'm here in HK, I'll visit the campus to reminisce the old days. Those "Hallowed Halls" are not there anymore, but they're still very much part of our collective memories. I don't understand Chinese Feng Shui a bit but I share Thomas' notion - geomancy is how people could use the interrelations of place, people and events to shape their future. I know 'cos I've been a teacher both in Montreal and Beijing.

A big thank you to you and all the nice people who've made the publication of these articles possible. Thanks a million for those extremely good reads.
