Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office Spring Party

New York/ East Coast Chapter

Our New York Chapter was invited to attend the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office (HKETO) at New York for its Spring Party. Five old boys attended the event.

Despite the challenging and volatile international business environment in 2015, Hong Kong's trade ties with the United States have remained close and the city's fundamentals stayed robust, said Hong Kong Commissioner for Economic and Trade Affairs, USA, Clement Leung, at a Chinese New Year reception of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office, New York (HKETONY), in Harvard Club on February 9. More than 350 guests comprised of business and government leaders attended the event, featuring a lion dance, jazz performances by Hong Kong native, jazz guitarist and composer Alan Kwan, and artwork by Hong Kong illustrator Phoenix Chan.

“We Are LaSallians!!”

60 LaSallians and their families joined together to celebrate the arrival of the Year of the Monkey on Feb 27th.

♪ We are sons of La Salle everyone ♪

We started off our dinner by singing our school song, followed by George Law '66's speech on our Alma Mater update, and the President Speech from our Chapter President Andrew Sien '63

♪ And no matter where we go ♪

Between the courses, our host of the night, Kelvin Chan '94, initiated the excitement by giving out red pockets to lucky Bingo winners.

♪ High aloft her flag we will hold ♪

The excitement escalated when we started our lottery draw for Big Prizes! Besides the specially prepared prizes, this year, our Grand Prize was the collective contribution of everyone who came to the dinner. Gerald Chan '90 is the luckiest person of the year. He caught the Grand Prize with the cheers and blessings from every Bay Area LaSallians. Congratulations Gerald!
