AGM & La Salle Day Dinner

Kevin Kwok (1988)

In keeping with tradition, Toronto Chapter held its Annual General Meeting on La Salle Day, which fell on a Sunday this year, at Casa Deluz Banquet Hall (豪門宴) in Scarborough. As this is not an election year for the chapter, the AGM was short and simple.

After welcoming everybody, President Philip Wong (1967) invited our Founding President, Peter Leung (1952), was to address the gathering. After Peter's short opening remarks, Philip delivered a concise report on the chapter activities in the past year. Then Vice President Kevin Kwok (1988) reported on the joint school alumni activities in the past year, followed by Treasurer Francis Yeung (1971), who presented a summary financial report, Before the AGM was adjourned, Philip urged all members to attend the upcoming Global Reunion, and to donate on-line towards the Sustainable Fundraising Campaign via the chapter's website, before leading all in singing our school song.

La Salle Day Dinner followed.

During dinner, President Philip Wong (1967), event chairman Danny Au Yeung (1967) and Tony Pomeroy (1971) presented was presented to trophy to Sam Cheung (1971), the overall champion at the annual Louis Pomeroy Memorial Trophy Mahjong Tournament held in March. (The annual event was in memory of Louis Pomeroy (1941), who served on the LSCOPA Committee before he emigrated to Canada, and was a serving director of Toronto Chapter when he passed away in early 2011.)

78 old boys gathered for the occasion this year. We were blessed with more than a table of senior old boys from the classes of 1940s and 1950s, and more than a table of young old boys, including a handful from post 2000 classes. It was a joyous gathering indeed!

Our sincere thanks go to Ambrose Cheung (1971) and Chris Fong (1994) for coordinating the event. We are also grateful to Peter Leung (1952), Stephen Leung (1963), Raphael Ng (1961), Dennis Ho (1961), Thomas Lau (1969) and Tony Pomeroy (1971) for making special efforts to encourage their fellow classmates to attend this annual function.
