

Dear fellow Old Boys,

The 2011-12 school year saw an exceptionally busy calendar for both the School and the Old Boys' Association, as the Association played an active part in the School's 80th Anniversary celebrations.

In this, the second term of my presidency, I have continued to drive the Old Boys' Association not only to fulfill what it had previously been achieving, but also placed particular emphasis on two areas. One is the OBA's contribution towards student development in LSC, and secondly, to support the School in its 80th Anniversary celebrations and fund raising initiatives.

In the students' initiatives, our Student Affairs Subcommittee worked closely with the School and made improvements to prior year's offerings. We endeavoured to draw more Old Boys to offer something for our boys, be it a talk on a particular career, an interview workshop, or offering job shadowing opportunities. Our efforts were much appreciated by the School and our boys, and I thank all in the Student Affairs Subcommittee for their tireless efforts and ideas throughout the year, and all those Old Boys who came forward to offer their help. As I continue to see a strong need for such initiatives for our juniors, should I be re-elected, I will continue to direct resources to this area next year.

The second focus was the OBA's support towards the School in its 80th Anniversary programs. The OBA took up the role as the chief organiser of the Gala Dinner, with my Vice President, Willie Wong as the Dinner Chairman. Numerous meetings, emails, and hours were thrown in to create a well-executed and memorable dinner, and I owe a vote of thanks to Willie and his Old Boys' team, together with the dedicated staff members in the team. The dinner was attended by close to 2,000 Old Boys, Brothers, former and present staff and parents with their Lasallian sons. The next time LSC will hold such a large dinner event will be in 2022 when the School celebrates its 90th birthday.

Another event that the OBA took an active role in running for the second year in a row, which I was particularly excited about, was the free Medical Check and Poon Choi Dinner for the needy near our school district in Kowloon City, To Kwa Wan and Sham Shui Po areas. Jointly organised with LSC, Old Boys, students, school staff and helpers from Hong Kong Society of Medical Professionals (香港醫療專業人士協會), this meaningful event brought much joy, care and a hearty meal and entertainment to some 500 fellow brothers and sisters who are less fortunate than us.

I have a keen interest in the School's rich history, and this year being the 70th Anniversary of the Japanese attacks on Hong Kong, I was particularly pleased the OBA organised two events for Old Boys and students to pay respect to our Lasallian war dead at the Central Cenotaph during the annual Hong Kong Remembrance Day service, and at the Sai Wan Military Cemetery.

I reported last year that the OBA had committed to scan all school magazines from the early 1950s to present day. I am pleased to report that the scanning and proof reading has been completed. The school magazines will be electronically searchable on a computer, thus allowing names or subjects to be found very quickly. As the school authority would like to host the scanned files in the school website, we have already passed the full set of files to the School. We hope the electronic Lasallites can be available for all to view by the end of 2012.

In closing, I thank all those who contributed to the OBA throughout the past year, either as my Committee Members, helpers at events, or just participants. Your generous support has helped to make our Old Boys' Association one of the most vibrant and busiest secondary school alumni associations around Hong Kong. I also thank the past president for their unfailing support and guidance during the year. We always say La Salle is something more, and I hope and believe this OBA is continuing to honour this claim in our work for the Lasallian community.

I intend to run as President of the OBA for a third and final term, and to continue to serve the Old Boys' and the School's interest. Should I be re-elected, one of the key areas of focus would be our younger Old Boys (YOBS - those Old Boys who just commenced working or younger). On talking to many YOBS, I realise they have distinct needs in their stage of life, and I believe the OBA network can offer help to them to transit into university or the working world.

I look forward to hearing from you on any comments or suggestions you may have for the OBA, and I also hope to see you at the next OBA functions.

Yours in the Lasallian brotherhood,

MEDICAL SHARING SESSION FOR MEDICAL STUDENTS AND INTERNS WITH DR ROGER WONG

A medical sharing session with Dr Roger Wong (84) was held successfully on Sunday, 30 October 2011. The session was specially designed for Old Boy medical students and interns studying medicine in Hong Kong. Dr Roger Wong is a Clinical Professor in the Division of Geriatric Medicine, Department of Medicine of the University of British Columbia (UBC). Besides his medical practice, he is also very enthusiastic in connecting with Lasallian medical students, interns and residents, and helping them to get prepared for the medical profession.

33 medical students and interns participated in the session where Dr Wong shared his precious experience on how to learn and practice medicine, and taught us skills in analysing medical data. Using various medical cases, we applied our medical knowledge in simulated clinical situations, and had stimulating and in-depth discussions on the diagnosis and management for patients in the various situations. Dr Wong also shared with us how to systematically interpret laboratory tests such as electrocardiogram (ECG) and Chest X-ray (CXR) so that we could detect the relevant findings and apply them to the case discussions.

Time flew by during the 3-hour sharing session and all of us enjoyed a fun and fruitful time with Dr Wong and learned a lot. We would like to thank Dr Roger Wong for sharing his invaluable experience and providing his support for us. We hope that similar sharing can be organised in the near future.

Class of 71 40th Anniversary Reunion Celebration

With a thankful and joyful heart we celebrated the 40th Anniversary of our graduation from our dear Alma Mater. The date 18 November 2011 was chosen because our graduation Speech Day was held on 18 November 1971, exactly forty years ago. Also, 2011 was the 51th Anniversary for those of us who entered Primary One of La Salle Primary School in 1961. Although we only had the contacts of 150 classmates, the response was good and 69 classmates attended our gala event, including a number of classmates from overseas.

The celebration started with a visit to the new La Salle Primary School. Mrs Leung, the current Principal of the School, received us at the school office and we had a nice chat together. We then toured the new school building, including the school library with a portrait of Brother Henry, the Founder and Headmaster of the School during our Primary School days. We remembered Brother Henry very well and he was very kind to us. With the warm support of Father Edward Khong, an Old Boy of LSC, we held a thanksgiving mass in the chapel of the Primary School. During the mass, we said our prayers for the Brothers, teachers and classmates who had passed away and returned to the arms of our Saviour Lord Jesus Christ. Afterwards, we had a tour of La Salle College and had a look at its new facilities.

The Reunion Dinner was held at Kowloon Tong Club and we were glad that a number of our old teachers from La Salle Primary School and La Salle College joined us. A donation of $100,745.33 was collected for the improvement of facilities of our dear Alma Mater. We sang our School Song and pledged to continue to support our beloved College one way or the other.

LSCOBA Annual Spring Dinner 2012

24 February 2012 was a joyful day for La Salle Old Boys and students alike. Our athletics team captured the Grand Slam (A Grade, B Grade, C Grade and Overall Champion) in the Inter-school Athletics Meet, the first time in LSC's history. More than 300 Old Boys witnessed the historic day, including the nail-biting relays in the afternoon, and cheered the boys on to victory.

Those who were at the stadium probably noticed many competing schools, such as Hoi Ping Chamber of Commerce Secondary School, Chong Gene Hang College, Choi Hung Estate Catholic Secondary School, King George V School and even Maryknoll Convent School openly congratulated us when we won the Overall title. The respect we earned with steadfastly upholding our policy of using only "home-grown athletes" was a nice surprise to our athletes, coaches and the Old Boys.

Immediately after the Athletics Meet, more than 100 Old Boys joined the happy hour mingling with beer and wine in hand at the Spring Dinner restaurant. This arrangement proved to be very much welcomed and if you have missed it, do join us next year!

We filled the dining hall with a record breaking 46 tables. More than 500 Old Boys joined the dinner and enjoyed great fun, together with past and present teachers and also students from the athletics and other sports teams as well as supporting functions like Campus TV (teachers and students being guests of the OBA). We may not have served the best wines or the finest foods for the night, but with all the Champion trophies on display, and the cheers and the mood, it was probably the best possible OBA gathering of the year.

LA SALLE COLLEGE'S HISTORIC ATHLETICS GRAND SLAM

By now most Lasallians should have learnt of the amazing achievement of our athletics team in this year's Inter-school competition. For the first time in the School's history, we not only captured the Overall Champion title, but also scored a Grand Slam – winning all three grades, after an exceptionally tough and close battle against our traditional rival! Our hearty congratulation to the students, teachers, coaches and the Brothers on this magnificent achievement, which is a most fitting present to the School to celebrate its 80th birthday.

On the evening after the great victory, the OBA held its annual Spring Dinner, and we invited the athletics team, the Campus TV team, teachers and former teachers with the Brothers to share the joy with another 40 tables of joyous Old Boys. It was an amazing day for La Salle, and everyone had a lot of fun, including our much-loved Mr TP Cheung. On behalf of the athletes and coaches, I thank all Old Boys who came to support the students and the School in the Wanchai Sports Ground and the Spring Dinner. It was a day to be remembered by all Lasallians for many years to come.

LA SALLE PRIMARY SCHOOL FUN DAY

The La Salle Primary School Spring Carnival was held on 26 Feb 2012 with a Dragon theme and the OBA supported this joyful event by running a game booth, giving out hundreds of gifts to the kids who left our booth with no empty hands. On the other hand, we had very good sales of our souvenirs and the newly designed La Salle Junior T-shirts were all sold out. We also received record high applications for the LSC 80th Anniversary Titanium MasterCard on the spot. Don't miss the chance to get this specially designed credit card which will only be issued within 2012. Most importantly, your application and card spending will help to support our Alma Mater.

We would like to thank Vincent Ma (82) and Paul Leung of Lung Cheong International Holdings Ltd for their generous gift donations.

LSC Careers Day

It is a long tradition that Old Boys return to the School each year to talk about their career experience and inspire our students in their career planning. In collaboration with the LSC Careers Team, a Careers Day was held on 3 March 2012 for the F.4 and F.5 students. This year, we tried a new arrangement and grouped a total of 11 professions into 4 venues (the two lecture theatres and the common rooms) so that students only need to choose one venue to meet with Old Boys from related career streams.

A total of 28 Old Boy speakers gave informative and interactive presentations on Medicine, Pharmacy, Dentistry, Banking & Finance, Accounting, Law, Journalism, Civil Services, Architecture, Engineering and Logistics. Questions and discussions followed after the presentations and we were glad to see parents' presence too. The event turned out to be a successful one with more than 200 students attended. We would like to thank the following Old Boys for their great effort and time in supporting our Alma Mater:

LA SALLE COLLEGE 80TH ANNIVERSARY GALA DINNER

After a long series of celebrations commemorating the 80th birthday of La Salle College, the grand finale La Salle College 80th Anniversary Gala Dinner was held on 12 May 2012 at the Grand Hall of Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre in Wan Chai. A total of 126 tables of over 1,800 guests, including Old Boys, their friends and families from all over the globe joined the La Salle Brothers, current and former staff for this grand celebration. A total of $1.78 million was raised for the Alma Mater.

With the aim of drawing members of the Lasallian family from diverse generations and different geographical locations to come together for the one common goal of living the La Salle spirit, the organising committee ensured that everyone featured throughout the program, from the Masters of Ceremony to the auctioneer to the performers, all came from the Lasallian community.

After warming up with an hour of cocktails, entertainments by our Lasallian Musicians, photo taking and catching up with friends, the opening curtain was drawn with a grand entrance of the honoured guests followed by a magnificent Dragon Dance by La Salle College students. Charles Chan (77) and Dennis Yu (98) officiated the celebration of our Alma Mater's 80th birthday with a cake cutting and toasting ceremony. We also took the opportunity to pay tribute to ten octogenarian Guests of Honour who have been the pillars of La Salle College and contributed greatly to its success. They included three Brothers who taught in La Salle, namely Brother Lawrence Blake, Brother Alphonsus Breen (absent), Brother Alphonsus Chee (absent); three retired La Salle teachers, namely Mr Chiu Siu Lai (40), Mr Henry Lau (40) and Mr Peter Tse (53); as well as four La Salle College Old Boys' Association Past Presidents, namely Mr Michael Chan (41), Mr Maximo Cheng (45), Mr Hilton Cheong-Leen (40) and Mr Sonny O Sales (34) (absent). The organising committee also presented of THE UMAEL OUTSTANDING GLOBAL LASALLIAN AWARD to Sonny O Sales. Nicholas Ng (65) received the award on behalf of Sonny who was unable to attend the dinner.

One very senior Old Boy, Mr Victor Hui (38), who is in his 90's, made a special trip from Canada to attend the event and presented to Brother Steve his personal heritage materials, including his Government School Certificate, and the school leaving certificate issued by La Salle College during his school days, The certificates are still in excellent shape and one of them bears the original signature of our founder, Brother Aimar Sauron.

As the sumptuous Chinese dinner was served, a series of splendid performances showcased the talents of our young Lasallians. A mesmerizing Chinese Drum Demonstration by the La Salle Primary School Chinese Drum Team took the lead. Established in 2005 to promote Chinese culture and foster leadership and team spirit, this team of 33 P.2 to P.6 students had won the Primary School Section of the 8th Hong Kong Synergy 24 Drum Competition as well as the 2nd runner-up in the Newcomers Section. These talented youngsters also performed in the Hong Kong Drum Festival as well as the Hong Kong Olympic Equestrian events.

The entertainment continued with the performance by LSPS's Symphonic Band. Established in 2004 and led by conductor Mr Kelvin Ngai, the band consists of 100 young Lasallian musicians and, since winning the Gold Award in the Primary School Band Contest (Intermediate as well as the Grand Champion) in the 2008 Final, boasts a long list of trophies from Hong Kong and International competitions, the latest being the Gold Award of the Junior High School Division, Artistic Director's Choice and Best of British (Band) in the 2012 London Festival of Music.

More music followed with the professional vocal performance of “The Prayer” and “You Raise Me Up” by Jovita and David Quah, the parents of Ernest Quah of LSPS. A wonderful recital by the La Salle College’s Wind Orchestra rounded up the performances and set the stage for exciting auctions. Among the items up for grabs in the live auctions were framed Championship Jersey and Captain Shoes commemorating LSC’s historical Grand Slam in the Interschool Athletics Meet this year, LSC 80th Anniversary Chronographs and two Chinese Calligraphy pieces “春風化雨” and “克己復禮” by the renowned Chinese Scholar Professor Jao Tsung-I (國學大師饒宗頤教授). On the other hand, three bottles of fine wine, including a 1985 la Tache were put up for silent auction. Under the encouragement of our in-house Lasallian auctioneer, Roger Budhrani (79), Lasallians participated enthusiastically in both the live and silent auctions and raised over $1 million for the School, thanks to the generous winners Alex Cheung (70), Bobby Cheung, Billy Cheung (78), Sunny Cheung (85), Lester Huang (77), Class of 1983, Caesar To (82), Haywood Cheung (70), Duncan Chiu (92), Clarence Hui and James Chan (79).

Immediately following the auctions was the lottery draw. With the grand prize of a 1.08ct Estrella diamond pendant, the 43 prizes totaled close to $290,000 in value. After all the excitement came the climax of the evening, as the La Salle Brothers and the organising committee took to the stage, and we all stood and joined in chorus of our beloved School Song. With all of us “sons of La Salle everyone” singing the words “When the Old Boys get together, we will always sing this song”, the memorable evening came to a joyful conclusion right before the clock struck mid-night.

The organisers sincerely thank everyone who supported the event and look forward to seeing all of you again when the School celebrates its 90th Anniversary.

Calling for help in 2012 LSC Job Shadowing Program

In collaboration with the School's Career Guidance Team, LSCOBA has been running a Job Shadowing program (1-day internship) for 3 years to offer Career-Related Other Learning Experience to our F.4 and F.5 students under the New Senior Secondary Curriculum. Last year, 20 host companies and 100 students participated in this program.

In order for more LSC students to benefit from this program in the coming summer holidays, we are looking for more host companies and would like to solicit support from Old Boys who are company owners, corporate partners, private practitioners or an employee who can propose this meaningful program to your company as a community service to demonstrate commitment to corporate social responsibility(CSR). For your reference, two Old Boys working in different departments of Hutchison Telecom collaborated with their corporate HR and successfully hosted a half-day program for 15 students last summer.

For further information about this program and to see HOW YOU CAN HELP, please feel free to contact us at students@lscoba.com. Thanks in advance for your help.

MEI ZHOU LA SALLE STUDY CENTRE TOUR

In the morning of 6 April 2012 three Old Boys (from classes 67, 76 and 81), and the wife and son of one of them, gathered at Kowloon Tong Station to join the La Salle College Old Boys Association's 3-day trip to Mei Zhou. After crossing the border we boarded the coach arranged by our tour operator Wo Foo China Youth Exchange Centre and a three hour drive took us to He Yuan where we picked up the local guide. After lunch we toured the Wan Lu Lake behind the Fung Jiang Dam on the Dong Jiang River which supplied 70% of Hong Kong's potable water. After watching several local dance performances at the Jiang Hua Yuan Park, we drove three hours before picking up our next local guide in Mei Zhou. A final two hours' drive got us to Da Bu where we had dinner and checked into our much better than expected hotel.

The next morning's buffet breakfast at the hotel was very "local". After a short meander we arrived at the La Salle Study Centre in Chan Jiao Village and were greeted by Brother David's assistant Lucy and his students. We mingled with the students and sat through two classes where Brother David taught with enthusiasm. The son of an Old Boy donated 126 children's books by various authors such as Enid Blyton, David Adler, Judith Greenburg, and Roald Dahl to the Study Centre's library. Then we set out to explore the village together with the students. The villagers were so friendly and they showed us their homes, well, hens, pigs and piglets, and invited us in for tea, peanuts and Hakka cakes. The students prepared a not-the-usual simple lunch for us during which we presented the LSCOPA banner to Brother David. We were impressed by the students' diligence not only in their studies but also in their efforts in up-keeping the Centre. They cooked, washed up, swept the floor, washed their own clothes, organised daily supplies, paid the bills (highest electricity bill in the whole village), ie everything relating to running the institution. Brother David also emphasised his intention of mixing the haves and the have-nots: those from better family background would learn to share whilst those from poorer families would be motivated to study hard in order to shake off poverty.

After a very Hakka lunch the students showed us Brother David's pig farm and his architect-designed holiday villa up in the hills behind the village. Thereafter the students escorted us to Da Dong Village to see the Hua E Tu Lou (花萼土樓) in its full glory under the afternoon sun. During the trip the students chatted with us all along in English and were they enthusiastic about it! There was half an hour left before dinner so we learned about the history of the Hakka people at the Da Bu Museum before picking up Brother David. We reciprocated the hospitality by playing host at dinner whilst a parent shouted a bottle of brandy! Some exercises were in place after the very fulfilling meal so the whole gang had a stroll at the boardwalk by the river bank. With much appreciation we bid farewell to Brother David and his students before returning to our hotel for a well-earned rest. The next morning we tucked in breakfast quickly and started our long wet journey back. After an intermediate lunch stop at He Yuan, we eventually arrived home in the evening. The group agreed that it was a rewarding and moving experience that simply cannot be found in Hong Kong and we all felt good about it.

LSCOBA – MCSFSA JOINT SCHOOL HAPPY HOUR GATHERING

Having co-organised successful events in the past, the MCS Former Students Association (MCSFSA) and LSCOBA once again got together and organised a joint-association Happy Hour gathering on Thursday, 25 May 2012 at a “new” venue, illusion Lounge, in Lan Kwai Fong, Central. More than 150 Old Boys and MCS past students attended the Happy Hour which was a record high!

After a busy week, it was a perfect time to relax with a pint of chilled beer or a glass of white-wine spritzer, to wind down a whole week of work and stress. There was also free karaoke and some of our Old Boys and MCS ladies did add a little entertainment for all. Special thanks to Derrick Fung (85) who let us use the lounge for this happy hour gathering!

LSCOBA 2012 SUMMER GOLF TOURNAMENT

The tournament was held on 1 June 2012 at Shenzhen Airport Golf Club (深圳航港高爾夫球會) adjacent to the Shenzhen Airport. We welcomed several first timers, including Samuel Sinn (85), Julian Lee (92), Eric Lau (99), Eric Chow (00) and his younger brother Ricky Chow (03) who made his debut 18 holes play after some solid practising at the driving range under the coaching of our own teaching pro Alvin Choi (97). Although planes were taking off and landing just next to the fairways, the 34 Old Boy golfers enjoyed their round without being distracted by the engine noises, as evidenced by the many good scores.

Mother Nature graced us again with some good weather (it rained almost every day during the whole week) and we all enjoyed the nice course with almost perfect fairway and green condition, especially as we were allowed to ride GPS yardage system fitted golf carts on the fairways (indeed a rare allowance in Guangdong). Most importantly of course was the camaraderie amongst fellow Old Boys that we all enjoyed at the lunch after the round. An open tab with free beer and drinks were offered to everyone as a pleasant surprise, and we sincerely congratulated Philip Chu (90) who aced a Hole-in-One at the same course a week ago while preparing for our tournament and thanked him for sharing his joy and happiness with all of us.

The scores were so close that a few prizes had to be decided on countback. With such marvellous performance, we had some generous donations to the golfers' funds according to the La Salle golfers' local rules: including HK$2,750 for Clarence Yau (01), HK$2,500 for both Monte Chan (82) and Gilbert Lau (81), and HK$2,250 for each of Robert Cheng (76), Frankie Lam (78) and Warren Wong (78).

As usual, I need to thank my organising committee member Thomas Tung (77) for his kind assistance, and all the participants for their support to make this event a success. Quite a few of the Old Boy golfers have suggested to go on an overseas trip to celebrate the 80th Anniversary of our Alma Mater later this year. Let's see.

Obituaries

Dr Raymond Mok (37)

Dr Wah Chaan Raymond Mok MBE O.St.J JP (37) passed away on 10 April 2012. Born in 1920, Raymond was one of the first students of LSC, and after taking the HKU entrance exam in 1938 he commenced his medical studies in September of the same year. When war broke out with the Japanese attacks, he was called to serve as a Sergeant in the Field Ambulance of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps (HKVDC) and was later taken prisoner by the Japanese and interned in Sham Shui Po Camp. Eventually, he was released to help inoculate members of the public against cholera and typhoid. Wanting to continue to serve the defence efforts, Raymond slipped back into Mainland China and joined the British Army Aid Group (BAAG) to treat the war-wounded in a field hospital set up there by the British Military, until the Japanese surrender in August 1945.

Raymond then resumed his medical studies in HKU and graduated in 1950 to begin his work as a medical practitioner. He also served in the Auxiliary Medical Services and the St John Ambulance. Raymond later served as Honorary Advisor to The Lok Sin Tong Benevolent Society Kowloon as well as Honorary Secretary in the HK POW Association for Arthur Gomes (another Old Boy) and a member of the Hong Kong War Memorial Pensions Advisory Committee from 2001-2005. Raymond also helped the St John Ambulance to publish a handbook on First Aid in 1965. Raymond is survived by his wife and daughter.

Through attending Dr Mok's funeral, the OBA is pleased to get back in touch with Dr Mok's brothers, Mok Wah Shu and Mok Wah Leung, two other veteran Old Boys of LSC.

Dr Lawrence Chan (62)

Dr Chan Siu Hung Lawrence, President of LSCOPA from 1976 to 79, passed away in October last year. A massive stroke in November 2007 had left him bedridden and comatose. This was a great misfortune to a man of so many talents. Julie his wife and her team of carers did their best to ensure that he had a reasonable quality of life.

Although Lawrence's time at La Salle College overlapped with mine - he was two years my senior - my only vague recollection of him then was his involvement in the Chinese Drama Society and his much talked about role as Oug Fei.

I really got to know him in 1975 through our participation in the La Salle College Old Boys' Association, when he was then the President. Much was achieved during his tenure, it was no exaggeration to say that under his leadership the Association had its renaissance, membership and other records were enhanced; new members recruited; many activities were organised and relationship with the Alma Mata - strained by the decision to redevelop the old college - was strengthened. The rest as they say was history.

Lawrence's achievements as a surgeon do not require elaboration but I will mention one thing. Minimal invasive surgery is much in fashion today but well before people even talked about it, Lawrence was already practising it. He was among the first to introduce non-open surgery to deal with prostate and other problems of the urinary track. As someone who went under his knife, I can certainly testify that he was indeed a very skillful and caring surgeon.

In addition to being a good doctor, Lawrence was also a very talented and accomplished artist. He has all the attributes of an ideal Chinese Scholar and was a calligrapher, painter and carver of Chinese seals, on top of being a very good photographer. What's more he believed in sharing and over the years had passed on his skills to many who followed him through the cultural association he founded. Indeed he became an effective cultural ambassador for Chinese arts and culture by introducing the appreciation of these to South Australia where he had many friends and admirers.

For those who knew Lawrence each of us has our own story. But one thing we have in common is that we find Lawrence a good and genuine friend. The Lawrence I know did not know how to say no. This was perhaps why he acquired so many friends and long time patients. His passing is a big loss to us but above all to Lawrence's mother, Julie, and his daughters. May he rest in peace.
